Auction of promises

On Saturday 21st June 2014

The Friends of Harbottle First School will be holding an Auction of Promises at Linbriggs Farm.

There will be food drink and live music to accompany the family fun evening and hopefully some money raised to support the school!

Get the date in your diary and many more details will follow in the coming months!

Any `Promises` will be gratefully received with a prize for the promise that raises the most money!!!

Please help support our local school
